A NEW YORK LEGACY
ARRIVES IN DUBAI

LEGACY ISN'T INHERITED. IT'S BUILT.

For over a century, one name has stood behind the buildings that shaped how great cities do business. Iconic towers, financial headquarters and civic icons that defined skylines and set the standard for what a commercial address could be.

SIX GENERATIONS. ONE LEGACY.

Christian A. Rockefeller is the sixth generation of a family that helped build modern New York.

He was deliberate about where his name would first appear on a building. He chose Dubai: a city past experimentation and into maturity, where investors understand long-term value.

Every decision on this tower answers to that name.

FROM NEW YORK TO SHEIKH ZAYED ROAD

New York thinking. Dubai scale.

The discipline that shaped Manhattan now shapes a landmark on Sheikh Zayed Road: long-term thinking, quality that lasts and an address that holds its value.

Different skyline. Same standard.

AN ADDRESS OF AUTHORITY

Planted terraces wrap the tower, bringing greenery and outdoor space to height.

Every line is drawn to perform, for the businesses inside and the investors behind them.

THE HOTELIFICATION OF OFFICE SPACE

FIVE LEVELS OF DEDICATED AMENITIES

The Traditional office tower offers a lobby and a car park. This one offers what a great hotel offers:

Five full floors are given over to amenities, so work, lifestyle and wellness meet under one roof.

Train before the first meeting. Meet over lunch. Recover between calls. Host clients at the top of the tower when the day is done.

The building doesn't empty at six. It changes pace.

ARRIVAL EXPERIENCE

ELEVATOR LOBBY

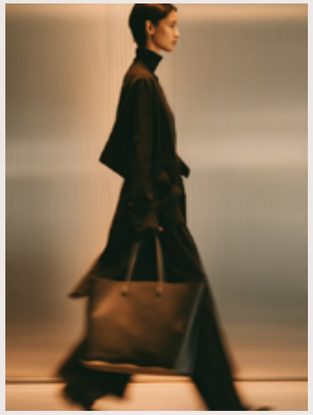

AN ARRIVAL WORTHY OF THE NAME

A landscaped forecourt leads into a triple-height lobby of stone and bronze, centred on an artwork and water feature.

Interiors by International Design Associates (IDA) draw on Art Deco, the character of Manhattan's industrial lofts and the energy of contemporary New York.

Security is built in and reception is discreet. Clients and teams move through quickly, and every visitor knows where they are, and where they're going.

TRIPLE HEIGHT LOBBY

THE SOCIAL CORE

Podium Levels 1 & 2
